

GA-39

Professional Large Diaphragm Condenser Microphone

A high-quality large diaphragm FET condenser microphone with a 34mm Gold-Sputtered diaphragm designed for different uses. The gold sputtered diaphragm of this microphone, cause your voice become warmer and more attractive. Voice recording, singing, podcast and instruments recording, use in Professional studios are among the uses of this microphone.

GA-39 is a perfect combination of quality, flexibility, and value for both professional and home recording studios. The contents of this product, in addition to the microphone, include a shock mount and a high-quality XLR to XLR cable, which makes the sound recording as good as possible.

To use this microphone, it is important and Necessary to use +48V phantom power.

Features:

- Beautiful and attractive design (Like TF-39 Telefunken Mic)
- Copper Grill/Black body color
- Use a separate power supply
- Without using a transformer
- Seven stages of noise filtering to bring internal noise to zero
- Use of quality electronic equipment for audio purposes
- Shock mount that prevents the vibrations of your microphone
- Suitable for singers, content producers, podcast recording, instruments & pro studio

Specification

Capsule	34mm*13.5mm 4Micron Gold-Sputtered Diaphragm (Single-faced)
Polar Pattern	Uni-directional(Cardioid)
Type	FET Condenser
Response	20Hz-20kHz
Sensitivity	-34dB±3dB (0dB=1V/Pa at 1 kHz)
Max. SPL	142dB(at 1kHz ≤1% T.H.D)
Power Source	+48V Phantom Power
Recommended Applications	Podcast / Instrument / Narration / Vocal / Pro Studio